

transform!

european network for alternative thinking and political dialogue

With the present newsletter we want to inform on short notice about current initiatives of transform!europe.

Transform! International Workshop on the Crisis

From January 15-16, the seminar "The Crisis in Europe: Depression Economics – Social Crisis – State Policy – Alternatives" took place in Vienna with 50 experts, politicians and activists from 16 European countries participating.

You can find the speeches, handed-in papers, PowerPoint presentations and video-recordings of the speeches and the discussion as well as a written documentation of the event under:

<http://www.transform-network.net/en/home/display-home/article/2/The-Crisis-in-Europe-Depression-economics>

Printed versions of EuroMemorandum 2009/2010 are available in English, German, French and Greek

As of now, printed versions of EuroMemorandum 2009/2010 entitled "Europe in Crisis: A Critique of the EU's Failure to Respond and Proposals for a Democratic Alternative" are available in English, German, French and Greek with translations provided by transform!europe. EuroMemorandum is edited by "European Economists for an Alternative Economic Policy in Europe" and supported by 200 well-known European economists.

The texts can be ordered by e-mail from the transform!europe office in Vienna: office@transform-network.net

"Systemic Danger? The Effects of the Financial Crisis on Private Pensions", a study by Richard Detje, is available in English

The study about the risks of private pension schemes, authored by Richard Detje on behalf of transform!europe, is available in English in printed version and may be ordered from office@transform-network.net. It can also be retrieved as an electronic document from: http://www.transform-network.net/uploads/media/Detje_FinancialCrisis.pdf

Advance Notice: Seminar on „Why the Crisis Seems to Favour the Right Rather than the Left in Europe“

From March 12-14, transform!europe will host a seminar in Mallorca entitled "Why the Crisis Seems to Favour the Right Rather than the Left in Europe". The debate, which will start out with a general assessment of the political geography, will be followed by a number of thematic focuses and case studies on different countries such as the Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, the Netherlands, Poland, Norway, Portugal, Spain and Sweden. For details, please check with our webpage: www.transform-network.net or contact the office.

Number 4 of the Italian Edition of the transform!magazine has just been Published

The Italian edition of the magazine "transform!Rete europea per un pensiero politica alterantiv" was published under the title "Analisi e rispositi alla crisi. You can order it from transform!italia under: info@transform.it